Safran Landing Systems Recruitment
Event Terms and Conditions

Cancellation of event

In the unlikely circumstance that Safran Landing Systems Services ("Safran") has to cancel the event, Safran will not be liable for reimbursing the cost of travel or accommodation arrangements made by individual delegates.

Coronavirus (COVID-19)

Safran is committed to ensuring a safe environment at our events and will continue to review and act on the latest NHS and government coronavirus advice and guidance as it develops.

Please be aware that for your safety, additional policies and procedures may be in place relating to personal hygiene, social distancing and the wearing of face coverings.

Use of personal data

Your information will be held by Safran. For the purposes of the Data Protection Act, Safran is the data controller.

Registrations for events are managed by Safran and its recruitment provider. This data will only be accessed by authorised members of the recruitment team.

Delegates details given in the event registration form and any attendance data will be retained by Safran for 365 days. This is for the purpose of contacting delegates for recruitment purposes, for example job vacancies or future recruitment events. You will not receive any marketing or promotional material.

We will also use contact details given in the event registration form to contact all delegates with useful event information prior to the event taking place.

During the event, your image may be captured by a photographer to be used by Safran in promotional material. By accepting these terms and conditions, you are giving permission for Safran to use your image.

Information provided by participants to this event will be used solely for recruitment purposes. Safran will not share your personal data with any third party.

As you have provided personal information, we need you to consent to the processing of this data. By submitting this online booking form you are agreeing to us processing this data as described above.
